Hooray for Hooray For Books! We're lucky to have such a wonderful bookstore so close nearby. Their toddler storytime at 10:30 am is a fun weekend activity...and it's free! Our daughter loves exploring the many shelves of great kids books, and they have a couch and chairs near the front where I can read a book or two to here before buying one.

"Hooray For Today" is the sequel to "Hooray For Hat", written and illustrated by the same author. the illustrations are excellent and the story reads very well for my kids' age range. The characters are fun and colorful and the optimistic message is great, especially for my boys who struggle to see the brighter side of things sometimes.
