What Are the Hardest Sins to Forgive?

No, they don't. (Deuteronomy 24:16) - "Fathers shall not be put to death for their sons, nor shall sons be put to death for their fathers; everyone shall be put to death for his own sin." (Ezekiel 18:20)--"The person who sins will die. The son will not bear the punishment for the father's iniquity, nor will the father bear the punishment for the son's iniquity; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself."

There are various Bible verses that reference the topic of "sins of the father." The theme of this phrase and topic mainly relate to whether we are guilty or responsible for the sins of our family, parents or children. While the Bible does say in Deuteronomy 24:16 that "Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers," there are generational consequences of our sin that affect those close to us.
